

Westminster Presbyterian Church of Cedar Rapids, IA is seeking an ordained minister in the PC(USA) or a denomination in full communion with PC(USA) for full-time, temporary employment as pastor and head of staff while the church completes its search for an installed pastor. The successful candidate will have strong communication (both written and oral) and administrative skills, with 2 or more years of pastoral experience in a church setting.

The job entails all the duties typically required of a solo pastor including preaching, celebration of the sacraments, and planning/coordination of worship for two Sunday morning services each week; participation in governance and administration of the church; providing pastoral care; supervising staff and volunteers; and providing other pastoral services as required. The job also requires encouraging and leading the congregation during this transitional period, with a goal of maintaining established structures, programs, and plans in preparation for the arrival of the next installed pastor.

The church anticipates offering a contract for up to one year, with 30-day notice by either party to terminate the agreement, beginning July 1st or later. To express interest and learn more about the position, email resume and cover letter to search@crwpc.org.
