

Director Of Youth Ministries :: Future-Focused | Energetic | Creative

Are you looking for an opportunity to shape a youth ministry ready to step into a new level of sustainability, in a beautiful new facility? Idlewild Presbyterian Church (www.idlewildchurch.org/), a historic PCUSA congregation in vibrant and growing Memphis, Tennessee, is seeking an energetic, outside-the-box thinker, who thrives in building volunteer teams and systems to empower youth to live out a vibrant faith. This is a full-time role, serving youth, 6th-12th grade. The church is currently involved in a project that ensures the creation and execution of sustainable youth ministry, providing support for this role. If you are theologically trained, possess a strong personal faith rooted in the Reformed tradition, have a demonstrated ability to train and empower volunteer leaders, are passionate about seeking creative ways to support youth in exploring their faith, we would love to talk with you!
