

Westminster Job Posting- MK 6.1.2021

Do you thrive on innovating creative ways to engage children, youth, and families in spiritual formation? Do you enjoy forming environments for students and children to explore their faith in relation to our current cultural moment? Does being part of a church family with deep roots in the community and a desire to empower strong intergenerational connection sound life-giving?

Then you want to consider becoming Westminster Presbyterian Church's next Director of Christian Education and Youth Ministries. Located in Wilmington, Delaware, this vibrant, progressive, and welcoming PC (USA) church has a rich history of experiencing lives transformed by God's boundless love within the congregation and the community.

In this full-time role, eighty percent of your time will be devoted to building a captivating youth and children's ministry, supervising a team that includes a nursery director, a preschool director, and an associate youth pastor. The remaining twenty percent of your time will be given to supporting adult leaders in generating transformative spiritual environments for adults.

If you are a passionate team builder, have at least a Bachelor's degree in theology or education, demonstrated experience working in Christian spiritual formation and education, embrace progressive theology, and are energized by the challenge of innovating relevant ministry in our rapidly changing culture, we'd love to hear from you! Resumes, cover letters, and inquiries can be sent to melinda.kinsman@ministryarchitects.com.
