Monroe, Union

Rev. Stacy Cavanaugh

Each week we invite you to pray for one of our congregations. Currently the safer at home order has restricted travel to take pictures. There are three congregations who have yet to be listed, we will lift them up as soon as possible. So, we are lifting up again congregations that are previous Prayer Churches of the Week as we can all use a little extra prayer in these trying times.

This week we lift up Union Presbyterian Church of Monroe, WI and their Pastor, the Rev. Stacy Cavanaugh. Monroe sits in the heart of Cheese country about 40 miles to the south of Madison in Region 4 of John Knox Presbytery. Slightly more than 100 people call Union PC home and make up a vibrant community of people who welcome one and all to their worship and fellowship. Their music program is quite impressive for a congregation of their size, it includes a large Chancel Choir and a group of African drummers who bring a new and delightful aspect to worship in a traditional setting. The Church is supportive of community activities such as the ecumenical service at Cheese Days. They also participate in a program called Family Promise in which they host homeless families in their building four times a year. Worship services have a nice sprinkling of children and feels quite joyful and warm to a first time visitor. Pastor Stacy is a recent transfer from Blackhawk Presbytery just down the highway in Illinois. Stacy brings a wealth of experience both in the pulpit and in work with Presbytery. She, her husband and their young daughter seem to be a wonderful addition to JKP! Please keep this congregation and their Pastor Stacy in your prayers.
