Each week we invite you to pray for one of our congregations. JKP is spread out over three states which means many of our members probably have not seen these places in person. By providing pictures and narrative information we can know one another better and celebrate our unity by holding one another up in prayer. Please incorporate these churches and leaders in your weekly prayers.

This week we lift up for your prayers Oakland-Cambridge Presbyterian Church in Cambridge, WI and their Pastor Scott Marrese-Wheeler. OCPC is a congregation of approximately 60 members that has served in the Cambridge area for nearly 170 years. OCPC is part of Region 4 in John Knox Presbytery and they sit at the very edge of our geographic boundary. The County line between Dane and Jefferson runs through the parking lot of the church. OCPC has served their community by providing space for 12 step groups and participating in area missions such as community meals and food pantry assistance. Scott, a graduate of Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary (Yea) has served as their Pastor since 2014 and he is part of a clergy couple. Scott's wife Staci serves as a Pastor in the Moravian Church. Please pray for OCPC and the Marrese-Wheelers.
